Description

Very well proportioned Georgian style mahogany and cross banded serpentine front server sideboard with three drawers over two cupboards below. Although Georgian style, this is a later model, circa 1900...so it's younger but also a lot more economical! Wonderful shape to the serpentine and with well figured mahogany. The three drawers are lined with a green baize (which is worn in a couple of spots) and the cupboards both have a fixed shelf, but at different levels so give useful storage. Good condition and a great decor piece too. Measuring: 39 1/2 inches 100.5 cm maximum brass gallery height 35 3/4 inches or 91 cm surface height 42 inches or 107 cm wide 20 3/4 inches or 53 cm deep
