Description

Hi I have for sale a very heavy solid pierced brass mantle clock with stunning brass scrollwork and chasing made in France around 1880 -1900, this is a very rare style mantle clock in very good original condition. The Case The case is in solid brass backed by purple crushed velvet with stunning inset gilded flower swags in fact everywhere you look something is happening, this beautiful clock stands 40cm high x 24cm wide with a depth of 20cm. The Dial The dial is in original condition in white porcelain housed within with a heavy gilded brass ring, the clock also retains its original gilded ornate hands. The Movement The movement is an eight-day time and strike, which strikes the hours and halves via a small bell to the rear a nice crisp sound, the movement has been fully serviced so keeping a great time over the eight days. Overall a very beautiful and very heavy top-end quality French mantle clock set by a quality French maker that looks stunning on display and contains all of its original features this is quite a rare find these days find another like this one for the best collections. Will post worldwide.
