Description

Hi I have for sale a 1960s French striking and repeating/alarm carriage clock made in France by L Epée with the date dials at the bottom with the moon phase dial also, in the Grande case with the rare second's top dial, ex shop stock never used a very heavy carriage clock in the original box for the best collections. This clock has been fully serviced and is offered for sale in mint-perfect condition both visually and mechanically. The Case The case is in solid shiny brass in the Grande case style and stands 18cm high x 11cm wide with a depth of 9cm it is in perfect condition with mint thick beveled sides/front/back door and top viewing glass. The case is very shiny and hard to photograph they do not do the clock justice at all. This clock is very heavy at 3.75 kilos so postage will cost a little more sorry. The Dial The dial is in mint condition in white with roman numerals, the face is perfect no cracks or hairlines at all, and the clock also retains its original black moon hands. The clock has three dials at the bottom one for the day and date (in English) and the center dials for the alarm setting with the fully working lunar moon phase all functions are in perfe...
