Description

A lovely solid silver Edwardian Christening Set, comprising fork and spoon all in the handsome original case with a gorgeous purple velvet and cerise satin interior with the retailers name Mappin & Webb in gold script on the lid. Each piece is exceptionally attractive with lovely Albany pattern decoration to both the front and back.. Each bear hallmarks for London 1902, with the maker's mark for Francis Higgins II and Lion Passant indicating the finest sterling silver. The set is free from any engraved initials. A wonderful and impressive set as a gift for a Christening or new baby. The silver is in lovely condition as is the original case which only has a few scuffs which I mention for accuracy. Measurements: Fork Length: 16.5 cm Spoon Length: 16.2 cm Overall measurements of case: Height: 3 cm Width: 19.5 cm Depth: 9.5 cm Total combined weight of silver : 79 grams Weights and measurements are approximate NJL37360
