Description

William IV wine table This William IV wine table was made circa 1830. The rectangular top with rounded corners, standing on a turned column, with a platform base and fine scroll feet. The cabinetmaker selected a rare exotic timber, Partridge wood for the top and base, also with a Coralmandel inset banding around the top. The finely turned column in simulated rosewood, The shaped platform base with the 4 ebonised scroll feet. This is a fine and interesting table that will be great in your drawing room as a wine table or to use for standing a lamp. 51cms wide 20ins 42.5cms deep 163/4ins 75cms high 29 1/2ins All dimensions are approximate, whilst we take as much care as possible, we can be marginally out.
