Description

This French Marquetry Bombe Commode Chest Of Drawers has not only a gorgeous shape to it, but has some fine detailing to it too. The curvature of the piece is accentuated by the rather clever design of the veneer layout, with all of it running diagonally for added impact. The Tulipwood veneer is arranged with marquetry flowered panels for added decoration. The two free running, oak lined drawers are of a good size, offering storage space. With the ormolu mounts adding further interest, and the marble top adding practicality. Presented in fully restored condition, this piece would make a statement wherever placed in the home. Supplied with working key. Circa 1920 Dimensions Width 33½in/85cm Depth 17½in/44cm Height 33in/84cm
