Description

Late 18th century George 3rd mahogany serpentine shaped tea table. The tea table has five square moulded legs, one of which swings round to hold the top up when it is open. Table has a single small drawer to the front which is oak lined and has its original handles. The tops are all cross banded in callamander with a boxwood and ebony line inlay. There is an original atragal moulded decoration to the top of all the legs. The table is a pleasing mellow colour and is in good condition. SIZE; 35" wide by 16 1/2" deep by 28 1/2" high CIRCA; 1790 - 1810
