Description

Unusual design 19th century rosewood centre or occasional table. Delicate design with thin but beautiful shaped turnings. The top frieze with unusual carved decoration. The top of the table has an intricate moulding around the edge. The square parts of the table are laminated in three sections. Great shape and design. Being so delicate in design there is slight flexing / movement. Otherwise the table is in very good condition with no damage and no repairs. Nice colour with waxed finish.
