Description

An very fine solid silver antique goblet. This impressive piece comes in bell shaped form, decorated with quatrefoil floral design to the cup with a vacant diamond shaped empty cartouche in the centre. The stem is knobbed in the centre with a circular splayed foot, also decorated with quatrefoil design. Clear hallmarks are visible just below the top rim for the London Assay office with a date mark for 1870, Lion Passant indicating the finest sterling silver and the maker's mark for the silver-maker: Robert Harper. A lovely goblet, suitable as a gift, or would make a super presentation trophy. Also great for a new baby / Christening. Condition: In lovely condition. There is a very light indentation around the base rim, which we mention for complete accuracy. Engraving has been removed from the cartouche. Measurements: Height: 17.5 cm Diameter width at base: 8.4 cm Diameter width at top: 9 cm Weight: 204 grams Weights and measurements are approximate. 37150
