Description

A rare pair of Victorian silver topped glass table vestas. Made in Birmingham in 1892 by Hukin & Heath, very famous silversmiths. Each vesta has hallmarks around the rim, slightly worn on one but very legible. The vestas are in good condition with one tiny flea bite nick on one. A rare and very collectable pair of Victorian silver and glass vestas. These are stunning quality which you would expect from an illustrious silver manufacturing company.
