Description

An early 20th century antique honey oak gateleg table in the 18th century style. The honey oak gateleg table has a rectangular shaped top with two drop leaves to either side, which when extended create a larger oval shaped surface top. The drop leaves are supported by the two gate legs. The antique table is raised on six barley twist and block legs with straight stretcher supports. A charming example with lovely colour and patina throughout. Sits six to eight comfortably. Item Ref; M-4542 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 74cm / Width – 102cm / Depth – 64cm / Extended - 165.5cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and fading to the top and base (pictured). The antique oak gateleg table remains structurally solid and sound, with the gatelegs working well. Overall, a good and sturdy extendable antique table. Our carpenter inspects, repairs, and restores our items, so you can have full confidence that what you buy from us is ready for your home! We ask that you take the time to look at all the photos as they form part of the description and condition report of the item. .
