Description

This is a most attractive 19th century what not table of good size and with a really decorative appearance. The display stand is in super condition and has a lovely colour and antique patina to the figured mahogany veneers. The back up stands are ornately fret cut in solid mahogany and the whole piece is constructed with solid mahogany turned spindles and attractive large finial surmounts. The stand is raised on its original brass cap castor wheels. The piece measures 105 high by 92 wide by 44 cms deep with the two lower shelves having cms of display height. UK delivery can be arranged with our local courier and costs £55 plus vat to most areas.
