Description

A wonderful ring from the late Victorian period with full English hallmarks dating it to London 1879. The ring is made from solid 18ct gold and has a large star design at the top. The star is set with a beautiful cushion cut diamond measuring approx 4mm in diameter. The measurements in the setting indicate that it is around 0.35cts. The diamond is a stunning soft lemon colour, around an L, and has excellent clarity, likely VS. All classifications are given whilst the diamond remains in its setting. The ring is wonderful quality and can be worn alone or as part of a stack. Such a lovely one!
