Description

This is a small antique apprentice table. An English, mahogany example of miniature furniture, dating to the Victorian period, circa 1880. Finely crafted apprentice piece, ideal for display or as showroom decor. Displaying a desirable aged patina and in good order throughout. Select stocks show fine grain interest and deep russet hues. Tilt-top held securely with a small rotating brass clasp. Distinctive tri-form stand, standing upon a trio of scrolled toes. This is a superb antique apprentice table, skilfully crafted in miniature to the scale representation of the full-sized piece. Replete with a tilting top, this small table presents quality craftsmanship and an appealing small form. Ideal for display within a collection, or as shop decor within a retail environment. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home.
