Description

For your consideration is this rather stylish 1930's Art Deco English drinks cabinet. Fabulous piece of furniture with not only kerb side appeal but very functional too. The top section has two clear glass glazed sliding doors giving access to a clear mirrored backed single plate glass shelf. The ideal space for storing glasses. Below this are two drawers one of which is fitted out in it's original valour material for utensils, such as cocktail mixers, napkins and entertaining silverware. Below this is a large single door with it's original butterscotch bakelite handle offering further storage such as bottle drinks. The right side is an open shelf and perfect for either dinnerware or smaller bottled drinks. The whole piece is very heavy and extremely well made. All doors and drawers open smoothly and the cabinet itself has been professionally restored to a high standard. Offered with FREE UK two man mainland delivery.
