Description

Beautiful pair of statement walnut Louis XV single beds featuring the classical quarter veneer panels. Dating from circa 1900 these curvaceous beds have the exquisitely carved classical crest and are grounded by small brass cuffed castors providing a very delicate foot appearance. The side rails are uniquely designed to have the carved rail on the outer side of the bed and a flat rail on the internal (towards its twin) to provide ease of access. The width between the side rails allows for generously sized single (102cm) mattresses - perfect for adults and older children. Comes complete with firm bed bases.
