Description

A beautiful Victorian antique upholstered throne armchair. The antique throne armchair has a high decoratively carved back, with a pink and cream foliage patterned upholstered splat. The Victorian throne armchair has scrolled open arms with a matching upholstered seat. The antique armchair is raised on turned legs with 'X' stretcher supports. The throne armchair has recently been professionally reupholstered. A rather charming armchair, with lovely colour and detailing throughout. Item Ref; M-1953 . DIMENSIONS: Height – 144cm / Width – 66cm / Depth – 62.5cm / Seat Height - 56cm . CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and fading to the backrest and arms (pictured). There are also honest repairs to the backrest and stretcher supports (pictured), however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the product. The antique upholstered throne armchair remains structurally solid and sound, with good tight joints. The chair has recently been professionally reupholstered and remains in a good clean condition throughout. Overall, a good example of a Victorian armchair. ...
