A very good looking and rare piece, pollard oak is highly collectable and was used by the finest furniture manufacturers, this piece is stamped to the top of one of the doors A Blain & Son Liverpool. This is the stamp for Arthur Blain who established the cabinet making business in the William IV period of 1835, at 35 Paradise Street, Liverpool. The earliest examples are stamped with just A Blain Liverpool and the later Victorian pieces carry the A Blain & Sons stamp. Arthur Blain died in 1868 when the business was continued by Arthur's son, William Hughes Blain who died in 1909. Their works were recorded in 'The Dictionary of English Furniture Makers', 1660-1840, Beard & Gibling, Maney 1986. When you see pieces of furniture by A Blain of Liverpool, yo...
