Description

Ernest Charles Walbourn 'Down by the River' Born in Dalston, Middlesex Walbourn started his career in a converted shed at the bottom of the family garden. In 1895 he exhibited at the ROI and from that date on for the next 25 years he was a regular exhibitor at all the Major Art Galleries including the Royal Academy. In 1906 he married Eva Knight who was to provide help and encouragement in his career. She would often assist him in his work and was the model for his paintings. He shows great understanding of the effects of sunlight and shade with his inclusion of figures, he truly captures the beauty of the Victorian Landscape. Signed Oil on Canvas
