Description

Edwardian oak pedestal desk This Edwardian oak pedestal desk was made circa 1900. A high-quality desk of this size is not easy to find. The drawers are all fitted with the original stylish handles, made of solid brass and with an art nouveau influence. We have replaced the inset writing leather with our red and gilt tooled example, that is finished to give the impression it has been with the desk all its life. It is now again ready to be used for future generations. The desk is made in 3 parts; this makes it easier to transport to and around your home or office. Imagine how much pleasure you will get from owning this lovely desk, that is of a soft honey colour. 122cms wide 48ins 61cms deep 24ins 77.5cms high 30 1/2ins 62cms high from floor to underside of desk at knee-hole 24 1/4ins Whilst we take great care measuring the sizes may not be exact.
