Description

A fabulous pair of cut and etched glass decanters from the late 19th Century. These attractive examples are full size spirit decanters. The bodies are in 'globe and shaft' shape and are decorated with panels of etched ferns. The necks are slice cut and the bases are cut with multi-point stars. The decanters retain the original hollow blown numbered stoppers with matching cutting and etching. An excellent and usable gift idea, both practical and decorative. Dimensions below.
