Description

Good size 19th century oak dresser base in the Jacobean style with a central "faux" drawer and two functioning drawers. Interesting piece of furniture with a well used top, full of character and a repair to the back panel of the top (more noticeable in the photos than in reality) and layers upon layers of beeswax so it has a wonderful mellow glow. Great sideboard or server, plenty of room for a pair of lamps and a mirror or picture hung above for example...also great value too! Measuring: 33 1/4 inches or 84.5 cm high 63 3/4 inches or 162 cm wide 17 3/4 inches or 45 cm deep
