Description

A rare cased English antique solid sterling silver sardine serving tongs. They are hallmarked for Sheffield 1909 with the maker's marks being that of Henry Williamson Ltd. They have been superbly designed with the grips being in the form of fish. They are in superb condition being free from dings splits distortions and repairs. They measure approx. 4.5 inches (11.3cm) long by 2 inches (5.3cm) wide and weigh 38 grams excluding the case. A very good quality well made example.
