Description

This is an antique decorative convex mirror. An English, giltwood and gesso circular mirror with eagle surmount, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1880. Accentuate your room with this striking mirror. Displays a desirable aged patina throughout. Warm golden hues beam from the giltwood and gesso frame. Convex mirror plate displays a clear, bright reflection with minimal foxing. Perched atop in prominence, the superb eagle spreads its wings. Plate set tastefully within a reeded ebonised slip. Beaded detail adorns the circumference of the quality mirror plate. Dressed to the rear with a mounting wire for ease of hanging. This is a distinctive antique convex mirror with a fascinating eagle surmount and high decorative appeal. Superb colour and a wonderful mirror reflection. Delivered polished and ready to mount.
