Description

C19th Italian bronze 'Grand Tour' souvenir, after the antique, equestrian study of Marcus Aurelius. Finely cast bronze reduction of the iconic statue of Emperor Marcus Aurelius situated in the Piazza del Campidoglio and museum of the Capitoline Hill, Rome, Italy. The over life-size scale of the mounted Emperor is designed to convey and show power and divine grandeur, his hand is extended in a gesture of adlocutio, used by emperors when addressing their troops. Superb consistent rich colour and patina to the bronze, mounted on its original verde antico marble plinth base with a chamfered top edge. H 11" W 9" D 4" Italy c.1870
