Description

A very charming and highly decorative Scottish Silver dish, marked for Glasgow 1892. Glasgow hallmarks are sort after today with the office long since closed and represents the heyday of provincial Scottish silver. Glasgow hallmarks : From 1819 to its closing in 1964, the Glasgow hallmark was distinguished by the inclusion of a tree, fish, and bell. Material: Silver Weight: 75g Length: 14cm Width: 11cm Marks: Lion Rampant, Glasgow, makers mark: B&B, date mark 'V'. Condition: This is in very good antique condition with just one small mark/indentation in the centre of the dish which does not detract from its beauty at all, mentioned for accuracy only. This can be seen in the photographs.
