Description

An antique George III sterling silver cruet set which is oval in shape with a gallery designed to house six bottles and resting on four feet. There is a central handle for ease of carrying and the gallery fits neatly over a silver covered wooden base. The six bottles remain in very good condition and the hallmarks on the tops correspond with the marks on the base. This fine silver cruet would make an interesting table feature and would be practical to use. Height: 22.8 cms (9") Length: 18 cms (7.1") Width: 13 cms (5.1") It was hallmarked in London for 1795 by Robert & David Hennell and remains in very good condition. Complimentary postage is included within the price of this silver cruet. Please visit www.marshantiquesilver.com for a larger selection of items.
