Description

Hi I have for sale a French striking and repeating carriage clock made in France around 1870;s simply stunning brass chased mask housing the dial with Roman numerals striking on a gong has been fully restored with new springs all screws and the gong re-blued in stunning condition. The clock is in a fully engraved case and made by Alfred Drocourt. This is one large heavy clock built to top spec and a must for the best of collections a very rare case not often seen for sale, with the solid handle also. The Case The case is in solid shiny brass fully engraved and stands 18cm high x 9cm wide with a depth of 8cm it is in perfect condition with mint thick 3mm beveled sides/front/ and top viewing glass. The case is very shiny and hard to photograph they do not do the clock justice at all. The Dial The dial is in original condition in white porcelain with Roman numerals, the dial is set in a stunning gilded engraved mask which sets this clock apart from others, the clock has very fine original black moon hands, and the alarm dial to the bottom. The Movement The movement is an eight-day time and strike which strikes the hours via a small sweet gong to the rear and also has the ...
