Description

This is a small antique corner medicine cabinet. An English, flame mahogany bow front hanging cupboard, dating to the late Victorian period, circa 1900. Pleasingly diminutive with traditional bow front form. Displays a desirable aged patina and in good order. Select flame stocks present exceptional grain interest throughout. Rich caramel hues beam beneath the wax polish finish. Usefully flat top ideal for display or hosting a candle lamp. Gracefully arched door dressed opening upon a pair of brass butterfly hinges. Door dressed with shaped brass lock escutcheon — working lock, key present. The key is a wonderfully ornate example with lyre form fob. Left-hand door held securely with internal clasp. Interior arranged as a pair of useful shelves. The cabinet stands upon a demi-lune plinth base. Dressed to the rear with a pair of brass loops for ease of mounting. This is a superb antique corner medicine cabinet, graced with a striking form and fine figuring. Fascinating example of bow front cabinetry, this well-presented cupboard is ideal for wall hanging. Solid joints and construction, delivered waxed, polished and ready for the home. Dimensions: Max Width: 37.5cm (14.75") Max...
