Description

This stunning 19th century solid silver necklace, almost certainly French, would make an incredible "something blue" for a wedding! The piece is set with 19 beautiful aquamarine paste stones complemented by dozens of clear old-cut pastes. The stones are foil backed, giving the tear-drop shaped blue stones incredible life and sparkle. The necklace closes securely with a lovely rectangular box clasp adorned with two twinkling old-cut pastes. The piece is in very good antique condition. Length: 19 inches (approx 48cm) - with a drop of around 4cm at the front. Weight: 42.3g. FREE INTERNATIONAL SHIPPING! Apologies but we cannot ship to Germany, any orders from Germany will be cancelled and refunded.
