Description

An effortlessly stylish 19th century magazine rack in brass mesh, with a mahogany base. The rack has two divisions to hold items, and stands on three splayed tubular legs brought together by a collar held with decorative bolts - a very handsome piece. Standing 71cm tall, 36cm wide and 14cm deep, this rack is in beautiful condition and would look fantastic in any period of home. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if I can provide any further information or photographs. I provide free delivery to mainland UK, and am very happy to help with quotes for shipping abroad.
