Description

A lovely silver brooch in the form of a bluebell garland. The brooch has the Georg Jensen & Wendel A/S mark, used only on pieces sold through the Georg Jensen & Wendel store in Copenhagen, Denmark between the years 1945-51. It also has Swedish import marks in the top right side (it appears it was purchased by a customer in Sweden). Also visible is 'Sterling Denmark' and has the grading '925S,' with the pattern number 301. This signed piece bears the signature of Sigvard Bernadotte, (the industrial designer who worked for Jensen and was also a Prince of the Swedish royal family). A fine item of jewellery and rather special for a collector! In great condition. Period: 1945 - 1951 Measurements: Diameter width: 3.5 cm Weight: 7.1 grams Weights and measurements are approximate. 37746
