Description

A lovely Victorian farmhouse table dating from the late 19th Century. It has a planked top and stands on bulbous turned legs. It has a single drawer at one end with turned knobs. The table has a lovely mellow colour and a nice aged patina with a smooth waxed finish. It is a good size, big enough to seat 4-6 comfortably, and a good height to sit at with ample leg clearance of 24" (61cm) on three sides and 23" (59cm) below the drawer. The table is in good condition and is strong and sturdy. There are various signs of age and use and some old historic worm but no major damages and it displays well. It has been cleaned and lightly waxed and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
