Description

A lovely antique pine table dating from the late 19th / early 20th Century. It has a planked top with breadboard ends and stands on square tapering legs. It has two large drawers each with turned wooden knobs. It's a good size for a small kitchen table or suitable as a desk too with ample leg clearance of 24" / 61cm. It is in good condition for its age and is strong and sturdy. There are signs of age and use, some minor marks, knocks and stains but this has all helped to build a lovely aged patina. There are some minor signs of historic worm which has all been treated as a precaution and hasn't affected the piece structurally or aesthetically. It has been cleaned and lightly polished and is ready for use. The best description comes from the photos so please look at them all carefully and if you have any questions just ask.
