Description

Fantastic button back parlour chair with solid walnut frame from the fabulous Victorian era. The frame is structurally in solid condition with wonderful crisp carved scrolls. Upholstered in a gold velour fabric which does show some marks however there is no rips and no buttons missing. There is some braiding missing but that could be replaced maybe with a contrasting colour to make the gold pop. Supported by beautifully carved legs at the front and splay legs at the back, terminating with white China castors. The depth of the seat and shaped back adds not only to the comfort but support as you relax. A very stylish chair that will look amazing in the right location
