Description

Late C19th Regency style brass hexagonal hall lantern. Decorative smaller-scale brass-framed lantern fitted with 6 bevelled-edge glass panels, the corners of the top surmounted with well-cast classical scallop-shell motifs. Decorative scroll-work frame above, rising to the ceiling ring fixing. The whole having an aged patination. * the use of shell motifs of this kind on objects and furniture, are classical references alluding to the birth of Aphrodite or Venus, goddess of love.
