Description

This carriage clock is unique in the sense it isn't the typical carriage clock shape. The clock has been fully serviced and the case has been hand polished. The clock is in great working order and still has its original platform escapement. As you can see from the pictures there is some damage (crack) running down the dial but doesn't effect the operation of the timepiece. PLEASE NOTE..... This item does not come with the 6 month guarantee like my other listings. This clock is sold as seen and in good working order.
