Description

An impressive late 18th-century Dutch floral marquetry inlaid cabinet presenting a lovely colour and simplistic proportions. Displaying a large pair of panel doors featuring intricately carved marquetry inlaid decoration above a pair of glazed panelled doors. Retaining its original hand-blown glass, with charming irregularities throughout. A highly decorative understated cabinet that would lend itself extremely well to use in either a contemporary or traditional setting. Height - 206cm Width - 151cm Depth 39cm
