Description

Superb stripped pine mule chest from the Victorian era in untouched condition. It's large hinged lid opens to reveal a spacious clean interior with original candle box and two small drawer. There is a single long drawer in the base which runs smooth and has bun handles. There are historic knocks, marks, cracks and scratches as is to be expected an item of it age, however these only add to its character and charm. A very well-proportioned item, it is perfect coffee table height offering lots of storage.
