Description

A beautiful Edwardian silver and tortoiseshell heart shaped jewellery box. Made in London in 1906 by the famous William Comyns. The interior has space for 4 rings and several necklaces or bracelets, the cloth needs a little tidy up. The exterior is in good condition with hallmarks on the base and lid. It sits on four feet and has intricately cut silver inlaid into the shell. A very useable piece or a great gift especially with the loving heart shape. WEIGHT; 180 grams or 6ozst approx. Free shipping in the UK, payment by BACS, telephone or Paypal.
