Description

An early C18th George I period, solid English oak, oval top, gateleg dining table. With solid well figured oak top, with twin drop leaves, each supported by a gateleg hinged within the substructure. The frieze with carved apron. The substructure consisting of turned gun barrel supports with square stretchers, raised short bun feet. Attractive colour polish and patina throughout. A charming table, full of character, with signs of use and minor repair but all very much in keeping and pleasing on the eye. Very much ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 71 cm (28") tall, 142.5 cm (56") wide leaves up, and 43.5 cm (17") wide leaves down, 132.75 cm (52.25") deep. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Very good colour, pleasing patina, and polish throughout. Some marks and blemishes. A few old quality and sympathetic repairs, including a couple of brackets to the edge of one of the leaves, see pictures, and a small piece in the top, though this could of been from new. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furnitu...
