Description

Original BTH horn loudspeaker,c1930. Made by the British Thompson Houston Co the stem is aluminium and the horn and base are manufactured from Bakelite. A lovely collectors piece for radio/music/ early technology enthusiasts, but also an item that would display well in any home. Overall condition is good there is minor pitting to the metal and small losses of paint and a very small chip to the underside of the base, but all very much as you would expect from an old piece. Please refer to the detailed photographs and feel free to contact me if you would like to view the item or have any questions. Price includes FREE UK delivery. Please contact me regarding international shipping. Size: 58cm tall x 36cm wide x 33cm deep, horn diameter 36cm
