Description

This Small Georgian Mahogany Inlaid Chest of Drawers offers a surprising amount of storage space for its size. Standing on generous bracket feet, the Chest benefits from the decorative inlay on its drawer fronts and top to add further design interest. The four smooth running drawers are graduated in size, and have good sized brass handles. The brushing slide is a very nice addition, adding further versatility. Presented with good patination, the Mahogany has mellowed to a lovely warm hue. Would work well in so many places in the home where storage is required. Supplied with working key.
