Description

An attractive antique Welsh oak dresser. To the top of the antique dresser is a moulded cornice above an open rack back of two fitted shelves, with an arrangement of small iron hooks to the top shelf. To the dresser base is an arrangement of six drawers, each with decorative brass drop handles, and an under tier shelf or pot board. The antique oak dresser is raised on bracket feet. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Item Ref; M-4614 .

DIMENSIONS: Height – 203cm / Width – 161.5cm / Depth – 44.5cm / Surface Height - 83cm .

CONDITION REPORT: In good antique condition throughout with some signs of age. There is surface wear in places including age-related marks, scratches and stains to the shelves and surface top (pictured), further marks and shrinkage splits to the pot board (pictured). There are also splits to both sides (pictured), however this doesn't affect the overall integrity of the product. The antique Welsh oak dresser remains structurally solid and sound. The top will need to be fixed to the wall, as it is not secured in place. Finished with a fresh coat of natural wax. Overall, a good example of its kind.
