Description

Carleton Grant RBA 1857-1899. Born in Liverpool he developed a highly individual firm of watercolour landscape. While undoubtedly influenced by the nocturnes of James McNeill Whistler, his contribution presents evening time in a manner that is particularly soft and gentle, with the last light reflected in quiet backwaters, often those of the Thames Valley. Prior to 1892 he lived in North Wales at Rhyl and Llandudno but in that year moved to the Thames Valley. In the same year he started exhibiting at the Royal Academy exhibiting 10 works between 1892-1897. His main showcase was the Royal Society of British Artists where he showed 24 works in his short career. His work was shown to Queen Victoria and her daughter Princess Louise at Windsor Castle and each purchased two works. 'Figures and a Donkey by the Waters edge, North Wales' signed watercolour, dated 1890; image size 33x48.5cms, framed size 60x74cms
