Description

A George II period, mahogany tilt-top tripod table with birdcage, Circa 1760. A original and high quality table, constructed in excellent early well figured solid mahogany. A circular top, from a single piece of attractively figured heavy mahogany, hinged tilt mechanism and rotating birdcage. Supported by a well proportioned baluster turned stem with wrythen carved base, raised on a tripod of cabriole legs. A superb example, in very good and original condition. Excellent colour, polish and patina throughout. Ready for use. Dimensions: This table measures approximately 70.25 cm (27.6") tall, and 83.75 cm (33") in diameter. Condition: Please see the pictures for details of the items condition. - This table is in very good condition, commensurate with its age, and is structurally sound and sturdy. Excellent colour, patina, and polish. A couple of scratches in the polish on the top, otherwise only minor marks and blemishes. No obvious signs of repair or structural damage. Ready for use. - As with all vintage & antique furniture there will be signs of use, marks, wear & tear, etc.
