Description

Victorian inlaid walnut shaped centre table This superb Victorian inlaid walnut shaped centre table was made circa 1865. It is one of the most superior designs you are likely to see and without a doubt the best of its kind on the market. The cabinetmaker chose wonderful burr walnut veneers that he laid, before the highly skilled inlaying was started. Not only that the top is stunning, but the base is also beautifully carved by a skilled carver. The top with indent and rounded corners, with the fine inlaid patterns to each corner, centres and at both ends, these are joined by fine box wood stringing. The base with its turned and finely carved end supports, with cabriole legs, these are joined by a carved pole stretcher. Imagine owning this exceptional table and the joy of ownership it will give you. It is bound to spark many conversations about its beauty as your family and friends run their hands along the top surface, as it is very tactile. 114.5cms wide 45ins 61.5cms deep 24 1/4ins 71cms high 28ins Whilst we take care in measuring the sizes can be slightly different.
