Description

George V mahogany triple pillar dining table This George V mahogany triple pillar dining table was made circa 1930 in the 3 sections by a cabinetmaker using period timber that could be found as there were many pieces of redundant furniture that the wonderful timber could be salvaged. These tables have been popular since they were designed Circa 1780 due to their classic style and practicality. The solid mahogany table top stands on 3 mahogany pillars, with triple pillars at each end and a quadruple pillar at the centre. Imagine how good this will look in your home as well as the fun you will have entertaining your family and friends. 275.5cms long 108ins 100cms deep 39 1/2ins 77cms high 30 1/4ins All Measurements are approximate, whilst we take care in measuring there may at times be a very slight difference.
