Description

A stunning high quality Late Victorian oak sideboard of good proportions. The back has three bevelled mirrors that are surrounded with reeded pillars, deep fretwork and carved foliage. The top has been re-polished and is stain free whilst the lower section has two magnificently carved cupboards to the sides, two drawers with original copper oxidised handles and a beautiful carved and fretted apron to the dog kennel undersection. The plinth is of a bold half round form and has intermittent reeding, all sat on four large bun feet. Both solid oak and pollard oak veneers throughout and in superb original condition. Height to Worktop - 97cm = 38 1/4 inches
