Description

Though there is no John Welsh of Luton listed by Brian Loomes there is a John Welch of near by Chesham Buckinghamshire, Circa 1700. There was also a Joseph Welch around the same time and surmise that John may have have to extend his area of working. The painted case shows signs of its years but is still sound and solid. Ideal for an old cottage or kitchens of a grander house. Elm Backboard. Height 75in or 189.5cm Base 44cm wide and 27.5cm deep Hood 48.5cm wide and 29cm deep The 30 Hour movement is in good antique working condition having been checked, serviced and tested. Please contact Robert via email or on 07899 058752 to discuss, arrange viewing/collection. Please supply your postcode or town if you wish delivery/setup. In most cases this would be done by ourselves, with a £65-£145 charge to cover transport costs. If not possible then we can organise a suitable courier at similar costs.
